THE NATIONAL SPIRITUALITY AND MENTAL HEALTH FORUM

Open Forum

The National Spirituality and Mental Health Forum

Thursday 22nd June, 1.30-4.00pm,

Selly Oak, Birmingham, B29 6NB

You are invited to our Open Forum which is an informal meeting to hear about initiatives which are bringing together Spirituality and Mental Health and to network with others.

This is an opportunity for faith groups to come together and celebrate the valuable contribution that spirituality brings to mental health services and those who access them. This event is a space for anyone who has an interest in this work to share about current projects and to explore future possibilities.

No charge but donations welcome.

All are welcome - including service users, carers, volunteers, professionals, faith groups etc...

(Car park available; Buses 61 and 63 from the city centre stop outside the meeting house or the local train runs every 10mins to Selly Oak station and 10mins walk)

Venue: Selly Oak Quaker Meeting House, 930 Bristol Road, Selly Oak, Birmingham, B29 6NB

Bookings: via our website, on Eventbrite, or at the door.
