

FAMILIARITY AND ALIENATION:

interfaith encounter under a different spotlight

Thursday 7th September 9:30am-4:30pm
Goldsmiths, University of London UK

A cross-disciplinary conference exploring the difficult questions and seeking fresh answers

World Congress of Faiths

It is no longer unusual for different faiths to find common purpose, and to enjoy dialogue.

But what are the difficult questions in such encounters in the light of the human tendency to create insider and outsider groups?

What is the relevance for current life and integration policy?

This cross-disciplinary day conference promises new perspectives for interfaith relations.

Morning theme: Facets of alienation

Dr Keon West, Lecturer in Psychology, Goldsmiths University of London

Dr Chetna Kang, Consultant Psychiatrist, Broadcaster and Vaisnava Priest

Canon Dr Sarah Snyder, Director of Reconciliation for the Archbishop of Canterbury

Afternoon theme: Interfaith practice meeting the challenges

Dr Peter Kevern, Associate Professor in Values in Care, Staffordshire University

Jenny Kartupelis, World Congress of Faiths

Dr Sughra Ahmed, Yale Greenberg World Fellow

Dilwar Hussain, New Horizons in British Islam; Coventry University

Register now

www.wcfconf2017.eventbrite.co.uk

Conference fee including buffet lunch: £60

Concessionary rate: WCF members and FT students: £40

A limited number of free student places are available

Please contact us for more details:

T: Jenny Kartupelis /Jane Thompson 01223 781781

E: Jenny@worldfaiths.org

